LETTERS OF SUPPORT

All applicants must submit two letters of support:

Fellows should have the support of at least one program-affiliated faculty mentor from one of the four participating UC campuses (UCSF, UCSD, UCLA, UCD). Applicants must have communicated with their proposed faculty mentor(s) to obtain their endorsement of the application. Accordingly, one of the candidate's letters of support must be from the faculty member at the affiliated UC campus who has agreed to serve as the applicant's primary research mentor.

Letter 1
- Sender's Name:
- Sender's Institution:
- Sender's E-mail:
- Sender's Telephone:

Letter 2
Fellows must also have the support of at least one faculty mentor from their proposed international site that is willing to serve as the fellow’s international site mentor. A letter of support from this international site faculty mentor is also strongly recommended. However, in the case of doctoral and professional student applicants who have not yet established this relationship, a letter of support from the affiliated international site is not required at the time of application, but will be required before a funding decision can be made. If a letter of support is not being submitted from the affiliated international site at the time of application, the applicant’s second letter of support should come from someone who knows the applicant well and can address his or her research accomplishments, research potential, and likelihood of a successful research career in global health research.

Signed letters of reference should be e-mailed directly to Assistant Director Kimberly Bale at kimberly.bale@ucsf.edu. Letters of reference must be received by the Dec. 1 deadline.

The NIH defines "disadvantaged background" as follows:
1. Individuals who come from a family with an annual income below established low-income thresholds. These thresholds are based on family size, published by the U.S. Bureau of the Census; adjusted annually for changes in the Consumer Price Index; and adjusted by the Secretary for use in all health professions programs. The Secretary periodically publishes these income levels at http://aspe.hhs.gov/poverty/index.shtml. For individuals from low income backgrounds, the institution must be able to demonstrate that such candidates (a) have qualified for federal disadvantaged assistance; or (b) have received any of the following student loans: Health Professional Student Loans (HPSL), Loans for Disadvantaged Student Program, or have received scholarships from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services under the Scholarship for Individuals with Exceptional Financial Need.

2. Individuals who come from a social, cultural, or educational environment such as that found in certain rural or inner-city environments that have demonstrably and recently directly inhibited the individual from obtaining the knowledge, skills, and abilities necessary to develop and participate in a research career.

Do you come from a disadvantaged background?
